PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS

Select employees have earned certifications which are explained in detail below.

CHARTERED FINANCIAL ANALYST

The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation is an international professional certification offered by the CFA Institute. In order to earn the CFA designation candidates must complete a series of three exams, possess a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution or have equivalent education or work experience as well as 48 months of qualified, professional work experience. CFA charterholders are also obligated to adhere to a strict Code of Ethics and Standards governing their professional conduct.

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT

The Certified Public Accountant (CPA) designation is the statutory title of qualified accountants in the United States who have passed the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Examination and have met additional state education and experience requirements for certification as a CPA. Eligibility to sit for the Uniform CPA Exam requires a U.S. bachelor's degree which includes a minimum number of qualifying credit hours in accounting and business administration with an additional 1 year study. CPAs are required to take continuing education courses in order to renew their license, and most states also require their CPAs to take an ethics course during every renewal period.

Educational Background and Business Experience

Mark Keller, CFA Chief Executive Officer and Chief Investment Officer

As Chief Investment Officer, Keller oversees all of Confluence's investment strategies and investment operations. Mark has more than 30 years of investment experience, with a focus on value-oriented equity analysis and management. From 1994 to May 2008, he was the Chief Investment Officer of Gallatin Asset Management, and its predecessor organization, A.G. Edwards Asset Management, the investment management arm of A.G. Edwards, Inc. From 1999 to 2008, Mark was Chairman of the A.G. Edwards Investment Strategy Committee, which set investment policy and established asset allocation models for the entire organization.

Mark began his career with A.G. Edwards in 1978, serving as an equity analyst for the firm's Securities Research Department from 1979 to 1994. During his last five years in Securities Research, Mark was Equity Strategist and manager of the firm's Focus List. Mark was a founding member of the A.G. Edwards Investment Strategy Committee, on which he served over 20 years, the last 10 years of which as Chairman of the Committee. Mark was a Senior Vice President of A.G. Edwards & Sons and of Gallatin Asset Management, and was a member of the Board of Directors of both companies. Mark received a Bachelor of Arts from Wheaton College (Illinois) and is a CFA charterholder.
